Paralympic Winter Games

The Paralympics Winter Games is just around the corner. There are many things you can enjoy during 9 wonderful days, including the Opening and Closing Ceremonies and sports competitions. Don't forget the Journey of Fire, it is a very special vibrant event that each city will host an exciting celebration. It is a special way of bringing the fire from each city to a certain place to begin the Paralympic Winter Games.

An interesting note about Paralympic history: It all began as a dream of a English neurosurgeon, Sir Ludwig Guttmann. He wanted to provide athletes with disabilities the opportunity to compete at an international level equivalent to that of non-disabled athletes: an Olympics for athletes with disabilities. Originally started in 1948 as rehabilitation for injured WWII veterans, the Paralympic Games were held for the first time in Rome with 400 athletes representing 23 countries. "Paralympic" is commonly thought to have been taken from the word "Paraplegic" but "Para" is a latin prefix for "with", making the literal transition "with olympic". The Paralympic Games have been parallel to the Olympic Games since their inception. You can look up more information on the Paralympic movement and visit the International Paralympic Committee website at www.paralympic.org.

Journey of Fire Event

The Paralympic Journey of Fire is a vibrant six days of ceremonies meant to continue the high level of excitement between the Olympic Closing Ceremony and the Paralympic Opening Ceremony. The Journey of Fire is a symbolic movement of fire coming to Salt Lake City. Each community will use tools provided by the Paralympics to develop their own Journey of Fire Community Celebration.

You may wonder where the flame comes from since the Olympic's flame began in Athens, Greece. The Paralympic's flame is very special. It comes from the cities where the Paralympic Games are being hosted. Each city will develop their own program on how the flame is lit. It could come from a Special Candle ceremony. For centuries, candles have been used as a way to light our paths. When people enter the program, they are given a candle and asked to light it from another candle. After the whole crowd has lit their candles, one of them lights the cauldron. This symbolizes that everyone has touched the same light. The cauldron could be lit from a fire already burning in the community such as a memorial flame. If there is a local cultural tradition on fire such as Native American traditions, it could be used to light the cauldron. A last option to light the cauldron is a campground fire, since tourism is a big part of many of the communities on the Journey of Fire, it could be light a campfire before the ceremony begins to transfer it to cauldron. These different ways of lighting up the cauldron can be done in a special way. It should not come from a pocket lighter, a barbecue grill, or other non-ceremonial source.

The following cities and dates will be hosting their own special celebrations.

March 1, American Fork Public Library at 7:00 pm, Brigham City's Courthouse steps at 6:30 pm, Moab Swanny Park at 7:00 pm, and Woods Cross Hogan Park at 6:00 pm.

March 2, Cedar City Canyon View High School at 1:00 pm, Heber City's City Park at 10:30 am, Kaysville Old Fire Station at 11:00 am, and Sandy's Sandy City Hall at 6:00 pm.

March 4, Layton Northridge High School at 6:30 pm, Park City Olympic Welcome Plaza at 5:00 pm, St. George Tuacahn Theater at 5:30 pm/7:00 pm, and West Valley's West Valley Family Fitness Center at 7:30 pm.

March 5, Centerville/Farmington Centerville Junior High School at 6:30 pm, Murray's Salt Lake City Ice Rink at 6:00 pm, and Springville Arts Park at 7:30 pm.

March 6, Paralympic Flame Celebration at Salt Lake City and County Building at 6:00 to 7:30 pm. This celebration will bring the 15 community flames from each Community Celebration together to form one Paralympic Flame. Otto the Otter mascot will be featured in the program plus other activities. International Paralympic Committee President Philip Craven will be present.

March 7, the Paralympic Flame Run begins at the Salt Lake City and County Building at 10:00 am. One hundred runners will carry the Paralympic Flame from the City/County Building to the Rice-Eccles Stadium. The Paralympic Flame will be carried by over 100 runners, young and old, and people of all abilities, to travel to sites including the State Capitol, Liberty Park, to dedicate an abilities play-park for children, and to Shriner's Hospital then finally to Rice-Eccles Stadium for the Opening Ceremonies.

PAH!!

2002-2003 TTY Directory Is Here!!

The 2002-2003 Utah TTY Directory has been sent to the printshop, and it is expected to be finished and ready for distribution in early March. You may pick up your copy at the following area locations:

- USADSF Office, Ogden
- UAD Bookstore, Taylorsville
- Clay Crye, Utah County
- Dennis Anderson, Logan
- (to be announced), St. George

The directory is free and limited to one per household. If you need one and have a TTY at your work, you can get a second copy.

Copies will be given to people who come in person to any of these locations.

We cannot give copies to persons asking to give to their friends.

When you pick up your copy, please read your listing. If it is not correct, fill out a blue card (found at the back of your TTY Directory), and write "CORRECTION" at the top. Mail it, or give it to Val at the USADSF Office, Pete at the UAD Bookstore, Roger at the DHAA Office, or Dennis in Logan, who will make sure that Val Kinney receives the blue cards. The corrections will be listed in the UAD Bulletin Jottings column.

Those wanting a copy mailed to them will need to send $4.00 to Peter Green, UAD Treasurer, 2044 E. 7000 S., Salt Lake City, UT 84121-3134.

PSC Does Survey About Relay

The Public Service Commission sent a survey in the mail to everyone on their mailing list. The purpose of the survey is to gather feedback on Relay Utah. 20 Years Ago...

March 1982 - The third "hearing" dog to be placed by the Hearing Dog, Inc. of Henderson, CO in Utah has gone to Joene Hall (editor's note - now Nicolaisen) of SLC. The dog, "Doc" by name, wakens his mistress up in the morning, lets her know that someone is at the door, or that the telephone is ringing. He is also trained to alert Joene to any sound of danger, such as shouts or car honks.

Postscript: Doc went to doggie heaven about six years ago; he was 16. Doc came into Joene's life when she was going through a divorce and was a single, deaf mother with a two year old son. Doc was a life saver at that time. When she married an hearing man, Doc went into semi-retirement. Joene says he was a sweetie and a true member of the family.

Honors

The Ogden Weber Chamber [of Commerce] recently presented the Volunteer of the Year Award to Brent Parkin. The general manager of Newgate Mall, he is active in Top of Utah business affairs. He is a son of Rosalee Parkin of Ogden and the late Jay Don Parkin.

Cathy and Bourke Tarbet, while at the Great Harvest convention in Florida, were stunned to learn that they were the recipient of the coveted Spirit of Great Harvest award. It is a national award given annually. Cathy and Bourke are the owners of a Great Harvest franchise in Layton. Cathy is a daughter of Valerie Kinney and Dennis and Shirley Platt, all of Ogden.

Utah Deaf Trivia

by Valerie Kinney

Q: Who served the most number of years as UAD president?

A: W. David Mortensen, who served a total of 22 years as president. He served from 1971 to 1985, 1987 to 1991, and 1993 to 1997.

He started out his involvement with the Utah Association for the Deaf as UAD Bulletin editor in 1968 and continues to be involved to this day, these days as editor of the Utah TTY Directory.

While serving as president, he worked nights at the Tribune, and went to University of Utah days to complete his bachelor's degree and obtain his Master of Social Work degree. He worked for Valley Mental Health as a social worker with deaf clients.

During his presidency, United Way granted money to fund the Interpreter Program and to fund the TTY repair service. Dave began the Deaf Day on the Hill and started the UAD Friendship Day at Lagoon. The UAD was the first to manage the Relay Service in Utah. Dave did extensive lobbying at the Utah capitol, working to obtain phone surcharges to fund a relay service and TTY distribution program in Utah; supported a law recognizing ASL as a foreign language; worked extensively with legislators to obtain funding for the first Utah Community Center for the Deaf.

We welcome contributions to the Utah Deaf Trivia ... if you have a question that you would like put in Utah Deaf Trivia, we will do our best to find the answer.

Opening / Closing Ceremonies Tickets

The Paralympics' Opening Ceremony will be held at the Rice-Eccles Stadium and the Closing Ceremony will be held at the Medals Plaza. Both ceremonies will have excellent interpreters provided by InterWest Interpreting Agency as part of an Olympics contract. You should not have any trouble in purchasing tickets. Tickets for the Opening Ceremony at Rice-Eccles Stadium will be $25, $50, and $100 or $20 dollars for groups of 20 or more. The Closing Ceremony at Olympic Medals Plaza will be $50.

The Closing Ceremony will be the finale of a 37-day experience of the Salt Lake 2002 Winter Olympic Winter Games and Paralympic Winter Games. You can go to any Smith's store to purchase tickets to attend these two exciting and awesome events. Be sure to request Special Seating Sections.

Sport Venues Tickets

The Snowbasin Ski area will have Downhill, Super-G, Giant Slalom, and Slalom competitions. The Soldier Hollow area will have Biathlon, Cross-Country (short-distances, classical), Cross-Country (middle-distances, Free-style), Cross-Country (relay) and Cross-country (long distance, free-style). The E Center will have Ice Sledge Hockey.

Ice Sledge Hockey is a fast paced and highly physical game. It is nearly identical to Ice Hockey, with only a few minor changes in game format and rules. Athletes have lower-body disabilities and sit in double-bladed sledges. They use two sticks; each has a pick at one end, for pushing along the ice, and a blade on the other end.

Tickets can be purchased from any Smith's Food stores (Smithtix). The prices vary from Alpine Skiing competitions at Snowbasin Area for $10 for adults and $5 for children or groups of 20 or more to Nordic Skiing competitions at Soldier Hollow area for $10 for adults and $5 for children or groups of 20 or more. Sledge Hockey competitions at E Center are $10 per Adult or $5 for children or groups of 20 or more.

Television

The Salt Lake Organizing Committee and U.S. Olympic Committee had the television rights to the 2002 Paralympic Winter Games, but no station to show the competition. However, SLOC finally secured a network, Arts & Entertainment (A&E), which will air the Games daily in a one-hour magazine-style highlight program.

Starting March 9 at 4 p.m., viewers can tune into A&E for highlights of the Paralympic Winter Games sports competition. Harry Smith and Joan Lundren will be the hosts of the network coverage. In addition to broadcasting the daily events, A&E's coverage will also include daily features on the athletes.

"We are excited to have such powerful television partners as A&E bring such an exhilarating sporting event to the United States," said Mitt Romney, SLOC president and CEO. "The amount of programming scheduled will allow fans to follow the Paralympic Winter Games as never before."

These are the first Paralympic Winter Games on U.S. soil. World-class athletes will compete in 100 medal events, including Alpine skiing at Snowbasin, Nordic skiing at Soldier Hollow and ice sledge hockey at the E Center.

UAD General Meeting March 23

The Utah Association for the Deaf will hold a general meeting on March 23 at the Utah Community Center of the Deaf from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. A delicious buffet will be provided after the meeting. A small fee will be charged to non-members.

Clay Crye, UAD Vice-President, will mail a letter to UAD members with the current proposals and agenda for the meeting. An important proposal will be raising the number of board members to 11. See you there!

Multi-Cultural Messiah Performance

The Department of Communicative Disorders and Deaf Education at Utah State University in Logan, Utah will be putting on two performances of the world renowned and beloved oratorio Messiah written by George F. Handel.

For the first time ever, to our knowledge, this will be performed not only with chorus and orchestra, but also with theatrical interpreters of the Deaf who will be on stage.

Dr. Freeman King and other faculty and students from the Deaf Education program will be performing so that the Deaf who attend may experience the message and feeling of this great masterpiece.

Performances will be free to the public and start at 7:00 pm on March 30 and 31, 2002 in the Kent Concert Hall, Chase Fine Arts Center on the Utah State University Campus. The Deaf will have prime seating (front and center). there will be ushers who sign (ASL). Also there will be displays in the foyer. Those at the displays will also sign. One of the displays will focus on Deaf Education and the Deaf community and culture. That's one reason we are calling this a multicultural Messiah.

The message of the music is appropriate for this season of the year. March 31 is Easter Sunday.

MDU's Report

by Rebecca Ann Davenport

I cannot believe that the Olympics are over in Salt Lake City. We have been able to have that once in our life time experience to attend and host the Olympics in Utah. We have seen various people come from different countries or states in America. We all noticed that Salt Lake City has worked so hard to make Salt Lake City, Utah look good. In Salt Lake City, there are many different historic sites, and there were many opportunities and activities for people not involved with sports so they could enjoy their stay in Salt Lake City.

I was privileged to have the opportunity to be involved with The Favorite Poetry Project with Robert Pinsky, United States Poet Laureate and Consultant in Poetry to the Library of Congress. I signed the poetry called "To the Hearing Mother", by Ella Mae Lentz. It is my favorite poetry because it shows that there are two worlds; one is the deaf world and the other is the hearing world. They are separated but in this poetry it shows that we need to work together to become united as one. My time with Robert Pinsky showed me that he is a very sweet and very kind man. He has seen many different cultures and their poetry of their experience with culture. He has shown a lot of respect to other cultures besides his own.

I had the special opportunity to attend two different medal ceremonies during the Olympics. My personal favorite was the ceremony on February 22, 2002. It was for the alpine skiing, bobsleighbing, curling, figure skating, women's hockey, and speed skating. It was fascinating for me to see the variety of people who attended the ceremony. Also, it was wondrous for me to see the ASL interpreters sign the songs and translate the words so that we were able to understand the songs. Also, I am so glad everything went smoothly in Salt Lake City. That is what the world will always remember about Utah.

TTY HotLine for AIDS

I would like to take this opportunity to share information with you about the TTY service of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's National STD and AIDS Hotlines (CDC NSTDAH) and the National Immunization Information Hotline (CDC NIIH). The TTY service hotline is the only one in the nation that helps TTY users by giving:

1. Free, private information and education about HIV infection, AIDS, STDs and vaccines.

President's Message

by Ron Nelson

I worked 150+ hours as an Olympic Volunteer at the Soldier Hollow Alternative Housing (Homestead in Midway). I served as a Transportation Host and Athlete Driver. What an experience it was to see world-class athletes up close every day!

They look like you and me but they are continually exercising all through the day. More on that next month in a separate article with other Deaf volunteers.

I realize that the UAD Board members are also volunteers. In my opinion, they are world-class citizens! They are willing to serve the Deaf Community of Utah and give their time and talents for our benefit. None of them are paid for their service as a Board member. My hands are wildly waving (applauding) for them!

Another equally valuable group of volunteers are the Chairs of the UAD Committees. I suspect they put more time into their duties than the Board members. They are truly dedicated individuals who want to see the quality of life improved for all of us. My hands are wildly waving (applauding) for them too!

I hope that you are thinking of contributing your time and talents. Please contact me if you would like to be involved in UAD. We can discuss what you would like to do. Every little bit helps!
