Sego Lily Center for the Abused Deaf Thanks You!

Dear Community, MANY THANKS FOR YOUR WONDERFUL SUPPORT!

We at Sego Lily Center for the Abused Deaf, would like to thank those who came to the Holiday Open House last Friday.

We had a wonderful show of support - about 70 people attended!

It was nice to be able to introduce our staff, Board, services and new building to everyone.

Some of you chose to select a ornament from our wish tree to donate items. This means so much to Sego Lily and the community.

When you are ready to give the item, you can arrange a time to drop it off by contacting Jen Byrnes at info@slcad.org or 866 695 6988 VP. OR Joene Nicolaisen at joene@slcad.org

Again, thank you all for your wonderful support and spirit. Have a warm and peaceful holiday!

Seminary or Institute Classes for Children with Multiple Disabilities

Submitted by Dulane Woodhouse

We are now forming LDS Seminary or Institute classes for deaf children ages 14 and up, who have additional disabilities such as Autism, or Mental Disabilities, and so forth.

If you are interested having your child participate in these classes, please contact Nathan Van De Graaff at vande-graaffn@ldschurch.org.

Classes will be held at the Granite Seminary Building on 3328 S 500 E., Salt Lake City.

Classes will be taught by Nathan Van De Graaff, who has a MS degree in Special Education (Deaf/hard of Hearing) Volunteers will be welcome!

We have not established a class yet, but when we get the enrollment, we will determine the best time and day for these classes.

Any questions, Contact Nathan at the above email address!

Mountain View High School located at 725 W Center Street, Orem, Utah. My classroom is in room 6 or in office next door. A VP will be installed.

Memorial Service for Lawrence Fleischer Set

A date has been set for the memorial service honoring Lawrence Fleischer, president of USA Deaf Sports Federation, at California State University in Northridge.

A noted leader in deaf education, an advocate of ASL in deaf children's education, founder of Deaf Studies at California State University, Lawrence Fleischer will be memorialized on Saturday, January 23.

For updates, go to www.csun.edu/education/dfst/faculty/fleischer/fleischer.html.

NOTEWORTHY

Friends gathered at Peachtree Place Assisted Living on December 12 at a luncheon to honor Priscilla Burdett on her 90th birthday. Priscilla is well known as a sub teacher at the Utah School for the Deaf; her husband was the late Kenneth C. Burdett, a long time staffer of the Utah School for the Deaf. Her children and their spouses are Terry and Vi Rogerson of Tucson, Chuck and Verlene Rogerson of Riverdale, daughter in law Marian Rogerson of Tucson and the late Richard Rogerson, and step-children and their spouses, JoAnn and Morey Haymond of Houston and Ronald and Joyanne Burdett of Ivins.

OBITUARIES

November 22, 2009 - LaMar Porter passed away peacefully in his sleep at the age of 96. He did not have children of his own, but he accepted two step sons and four step daughters whom he loved as his own. He loved having his grandchildren come to his home; he will always be "Grandpa Porter." He was wonderful with the grandchildren; when the grandkids came to visit him, he would get bags of candies and cookies for them to take home and share. Funeral services were held in Sandy, with burial in South Jordan. He is survived by his step-daughter, Nancy Lee O'Brien and step-daughter-in-law Dixie Lee O'Brien, wife of the late Robert O'Brien.

December 14, 2009 - Adri Jones passed away after just 21 years. He came into this world with many physical difficulties yet still had a great love for life. He had a unique personality that has left its mark on many people. He attended the Utah School for the Blind, Hillcrest High School, and South Valley School. Funeral and interment took place in Salt Lake City. His parents, Brent and Coleen Jones, survive him.

Festive Christmas Party Attracts Senior Citizens

Planned for months before the big day, a Christmas party took place on December 16 for senior citizens. The day started out with a game, Deal or No Deal, a fun event for those in attendance. A delicious luncheon, served by Red Flame Catering of Bountiful, was enjoyed by over 70 senior citizens. Drawings took place for table centerpieces. Card games concluded the fun day. Nancy Lee O'Brien was the chairlady for the event, with assistants Sally Green, Lila West and EJ Royce.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY: Newsletter editor

The Utah Association for the Deaf is searching for a volunteer editor to produce monthly editions of the UAD Bulletin.

The UAD Bulletin is a newsletter that has been in continuous publication since 1954. The Utah deaf community is shown in these issues as ever changing and evolving in disability rights and accessibility. Through its advocacy, the Utah Association for the Deaf has ensured the best quality of life possible for the deaf community.

The newsletter is produced on MS Publisher software. The following skills are highly desired:

- ~ ability to collect news and keep on top of evolving news
- ~ involved in deaf community events
- ~ understanding the value of the UAD Bulletin to the deaf community - locally, statewide, and nationally
- ~ have a good command of English
- ~ knowledge of journalism guidelines
- ~ knowledge of how to add pictures and convert the issue to PDF

A resume, along with samples of your work, will be required. The editor will serve a six month probationary period under the supervision of the Bulletin committee. Must be a member of the Utah Association for the Deaf.

If you are interested, contact Rob Kerr at rgkerr@live.com. The vacancy is open until filled.

Have you seen our digital Bulletin?

Those of you have access to the Internet:
How do you like it? Around 300 have viewed each issue. This is great!

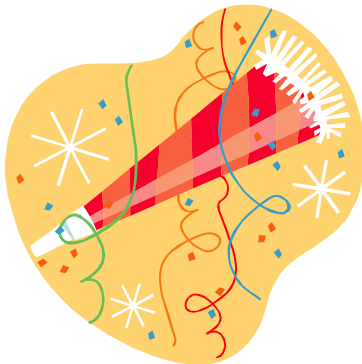

If you have difficulty viewing the issue, it would be helpful for you to download Adobe 9 which is the latest version and which will allow you to read the issue properly.

If you would like to go paperless even if your subscription is not due to expire, let Valerie Kinney know. She can be contacted at 801-784-6962 VP or vkinnay@comcast.net. She can also answer questions about this change.
