Academic Bowl Notes

Who is Dummy Hoy? If you ask one of the students practicing with the Academic Bowl team, they can tell you the answer! The Academic Bowl team is in full swing! Practices have already begun and we're already working on the upcoming competitions which will be at Gallaudet University in March 2011.

The Academic Bowl competitions will be held at Gallaudet University. This year's competitions bring new changes. Gallaudet University will host 88 schools from all over the USA and the students will be involved in a week long stay at Gallaudet University. The stay at Gallaudet University will include competitions, sight seeing of Gallaudet University to show the students the campus, and a few other activities that Gallaudet University has planned. This is a wonderful opportunity for the Academic Bowl teams to visit Gallaudet University, compete and check out the campus as future possibilities of attending there.

The Academic Bowl recently did a fundraiser at the Deaf Bazaar in November. The fundraiser was ready made cookie dough that makes between 4 – 5 dozen. The cost for the cookie dough is $15.00 per tub and there are 6 different kinds of cookie dough. If you missed the fundraiser and would like to help with monetary donations or to make a purchase for the fundraiser, please contact Kristi Mortensen at kmortensen12@comcast.net or Jenefer Reudter at mommy@reudter.org.

The Academic Bowl students and coaches appreciate the support we have received from the Deaf community and the parents of the Academic Bowl students! We couldn't attend the Academic Bowl competitions without each of you! Thank you for your continued support!

MISS DEAF
UTAH

AMBASSADORSHIP PROGRAM

Andrea Vigil
2009 — 2010

I loved being Miss Deaf Utah. Before I become Miss Deaf Utah, I was just being myself, working and going on with my life as usual. But when I got involved with the Miss Deaf Utah Ambassador Program, competing and winning the title changed my life because it has allowed me to reach so many people from all walks of life. I learned so much from people. I was able to expand my passion and work with deaf community. So many opportunities came up while I was Miss Deaf Utah and I learned many things that applied to my personal life and to the deaf community. I encourage all interested young women in our community to participate and compete in the upcoming pageants. It can be very challenging to be the best you can as you showcase your intellect, talents, style, personality and passion. You also get to meet many wonderful people who share common interests and goals. You can make a difference!
